

STIGMATE

Short-film, written and directed by Sélim Atmane and Hugo Barral.

France. 1350

In the midst of the bubonic plague pandemic, Brother Simon comes back to the monastery after a long and difficult pilgrimage.

Being back amongst his frightened brothers is harder than he thought. Despite all of his efforts, he feels sidelined, discarded. One day, a beggar breaks into the walls of the monastery. From now on, nothing will ever be the same for him and his brothers.
